You have to cherish things in a different way when you know the clock is ticking, you are under pressure.

~Chadwick Boseman

I think you realize how much you need to have people that you love. It's not as much about them loving you - it's about you needing to love people.

~Chadwick Boseman

I majored in directing. However, I did spend some time at the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture in Harlem, so I am somewhat well-versed in African Studies.

~Chadwick Boseman

I'm an artist. Artists don't need permission to work. Regardless of whether I'm acting or not, I write. I write when I'm tired in fact, because I believe your most pure thoughts surface.

~Chadwick Boseman

When it comes down to it, I'd rather have an action figure than a Golden Globe.

~Chadwick Boseman

The best advice about getting older? Just be thankful you're not dead!

~Chadwick Boseman

I wasn't a comic book geek as a kid. I read some, but it was just like, "Oh, I have this comic book here." It wasn't like I was collecting them.

~Chadwick Boseman

There's nothing more stressful than your stomach growling.

~Chadwick Boseman

I might have had too many friends in my twenties. I probably said yes too much, and then I had to learn how to say no. How to get away in order to work on stuff.

~Chadwick Boseman

I just think people have been very gracious and welcoming me on set, and even off set.

~Chadwick Boseman

Guys are natural problem solvers - they like to have strategies.

~Chadwick Boseman

I would love to play Jimi Hendrix.
