The perfect lover is one who turns into a pizza at 4:00 A.M.

~Charlie Pierce

If you ever become a mother, can I have one of the puppies?

~Charlie Pierce

Ronald Reagan was a dim hack who did horrible damage to almost everything he touched.

~Charlie Pierce

We, The People is more than a statement of purpose. It is an acknowledgement of an obligation to each other.

~Charlie Pierce

Optimism....is neither weak nor naive. It can be tough and pure and earned just as clearly as any brooding existential despair.

~Charlie Pierce

It's better to be black than gay because when you're black you don't have to tell your mother.

~Charlie Pierce

We have a revolutionary history to honor and uphold. Which was what Nelson Mandela did. He reminded us of that which we need to be reminded, over and over again, about our own best selves.

~Charlie Pierce

Campaigns are no longer high-minded exchanges of ideas, even though God knows we need more good ones - ideas, that is.

~Charlie Pierce

If religion comes into the public square, it is as vulnerable as any other human institution to be pelted with produce. Ignorance does not become wisdom just because you gussy it up with the Gospels.

~Charlie Pierce

There is a lot in American politics (and in American life) that is angry, greedy, reckless and violent.

~Charlie Pierce

In order to get big things done, sometimes, presidents have to be deft at moving the pea around under the shells.

~Charlie Pierce

The man is the Piltdown Man of modern politics.

~Charlie Pierce

There is a barbarism in the American soul, and we must protect some of it by law. To root it out is to endanger our lives on the one hand, and our liberty on the other.
