Identity politics are becoming less important since culture's being blended into one big thing - I look at kids' Tumblrs and they're all into the same things.

~Chaz Bundick

I've always thought that reviews and knowing how much your fans appreciate or don't like something, that's the sugar coating. I'm trying not to think about those things.

~Chaz Bundick

I'm not worried about repeating myself - I'm more worried that I'd just get bored.

~Chaz Bundick

I see a lot of people of color in my fanbase and at all my shows, and it's really awesome.

~Chaz Bundick

Once you move in with your significant other, you have to become a combination of each other.

~Chaz Bundick

It's really cool to be around people that are younger than you who are really cool with being open about stuff.

~Chaz Bundick

I'm a big fan of the artist Parra, and the way he draws naked women is really cool to see. It doesn't look perverted, it just looks really awesome.

~Chaz Bundick

I'm never drunk on the road, and since I've got to take care of my voice, smoke is definitely not allowed.

~Chaz Bundick

I don't put categories on music, myself. So either people go with it or they don't, and sometimes the names sound a little silly.

~Chaz Bundick

Maybe one day I'll write my rock album so I can use more obscure references and just be weird. If the lyrics are too crazy, though, then it's not pop anymore.

~Chaz Bundick

Kids are starting to dress the same, listen to the same music. I look at their Tumblrs and they're all into the same things.

~Chaz Bundick

I like to challenge myself, to see if I can actually write a pop album that people can connect with lyrically. Musically, it's very accessible - or, at least, I hope so.

~Chaz Bundick

I don't mind genre names. "Chillwave" is probably the last thing I would think of, but I don't mind it.

~Chaz Bundick

When it comes to music, I'm definitely thinking [about] what I would like to hear.

~Chaz Bundick

It's easy for people to mistake most musicians as living the easy life. It takes a while to get to that point. I'm sure it's like that for acting and television.

~Chaz Bundick

Parking's expensive, so I walk or ride my bike, which is good because my girlfriend's getting her PhD as an environmental engineer.

~Chaz Bundick

As a music listener, I'm becoming more and more ADD - like, "Eh, I'm bored with this". So who knows how long I'll be playing music.

~Chaz Bundick

Electronic music is so weird because trends change so fast.

~Chaz Bundick

If I ever get some free time I end up thinking about what to make next. I don't pick up a guitar and start playing the songs I already know; I immediately try to write a riff.

~Chaz Bundick

Not all of my songs are electronic, they're not house or dancey.

~Chaz Bundick

Pop music is awesome, but I like to keep changing it up.

~Chaz Bundick

I'm a little bit scared of re-recording.

~Chaz Bundick

I'm training myself to go back to the way I used to record before electronic programs.

~Chaz Bundick

I don't think my lyrics go so well when I try to sound poetic. Some people do that really well. If I did that I'd feel like it wouldn't be genuine.

~Chaz Bundick

I don't do intoxicants on tour too often. It slows me down mentally, and it feels like killing brain cells.
