I am a gay, Christian, farm girl from Kansas who sang Country Music and I did the very best I could do - to know God and to share God.

~Chely Wright

I recruited my dad to be my bass player and fired him on several occasions. He stayed on as a bus driver.

~Chely Wright

I'm a Scorpio, and who knows if there is any validity to it, but I'm very emotional. I have high highs and low lows.

~Chely Wright

Being born in Kansas City, Missouri and raised in the very rural parts of Kansas led me to believe that everything was simple, everything made sense and that anything was possible.

~Chely Wright

I've saved every dime I've made in my life.

~Chely Wright

I'm not a Democrat, I'm not a Republican-I'm an American, I'm a human.

~Chely Wright

I grew up in a very modest house. We were poor-we lived on the poverty level. We all got jobs as young kids.

~Chely Wright

All I ever wanted to do was write songs and get on a bus and go play them for people.

~Chely Wright

In the first decade of my life, I came to know and love God, as I was raised in a Christian home and community.

~Chely Wright

Human beings are not designed to be alone. None of God's creatures are.

~Chely Wright

If I wanted to be a pop singer, I would have done that 20 years ago. I love country music.

~Chely Wright

I guess we guess our way through life. How many times do we really know for sure?

~Chely Wright

I felt like a sinful person when I dated men and allowed them to feel for me in a way I knew I could never naturally feel for them. That felt wrong and a lie.

~Chely Wright

If I have a hit, then I hope the people who like the hit song go out and buy my album so they can hear it all.

~Chely Wright

I've learned a lot about my voice, and about things I can do with it. Maybe that's why my sound has become a little more pop.

~Chely Wright

I think I'm no different from any artist in music. At least once, you want to see your name up on the top.

~Chely Wright

I came along at a time when the industry was eating its young.

~Chely Wright

I wish I had a great relationship with my mother.

~Chely Wright

I'm very much a traditionalist, but I think it's important to know about tradition so that you can evolve the music you are deciding to make.

~Chely Wright

I'd like my writing to be recognized with a Grammy.
