My one thing is I continue to be interested and want to be a student. I don't want to be a master. When I'm learning something, I'm in my element.

~Chick Corea

I searched through rebellion, drugs, diet, mysticism, religion, intellectualism and much more, only to begin to find that truth is basically simple and feels good, clear and right.

~Chick Corea

I no longer wanted to satisfy myself. I really want to connect with the world and make my music mean something to people.

~Chick Corea

You've got to create the space, then fill it.

~Chick Corea

Without a doubt, my richest relationships are my long-term friendships with musical partners, because we make music together. That's what we love to do with our lives.

~Chick Corea

Only a spiritual being has awareness.

~Chick Corea

I got a chance to listen to and watch Thelonious Monk and his quartet play two shows a night, for six weeks. It was a great education. There was my university, man.

~Chick Corea

It's one thing to just play a tune, or play a program of music, but it's another thing to practically create a new language of music, which is what 'Kind of Blue' did.

~Chick Corea

I decided that I didn't want to spend my time in a liberal arts college.

~Chick Corea

I've noticed that the more adventurous and in that mode that I am, it seems that the more the audience really likes it.

~Chick Corea

My wife, Gayle, is a wonderful musician and singer. We share music, so it's a deep bond.

~Chick Corea

I enjoy playing the band as the band. I be the whole band and Im playing the drums, Im playing the guitar, Im playing the saxophone. To me, the most wonderful thing about playing music is that.
