Everybody has the same amount of time during the day. You can either spend your time or invest your time.

~Chip Kelly

Wherever you're coaching or playing right now is the Big Time

~Chip Kelly

It doesn't hurt me. I'm not governed by the fear of what other people say. Events don't elicit feelings; I think beliefs elicit feelings, and I understand what my beliefs are and I know how I am.

~Chip Kelly

Last time I checked, there is no 'Hall of Average.'

~Chip Kelly

If your expectations aren't to be the best, then... you know, nobody rises to low expectations.

~Chip Kelly

Run from being good. Chase being great.

~Chip Kelly

I don't think anybody has a ceiling. Everybody can constantly improve.

~Chip Kelly

I think sometimes when you look long term, you kind of forget to take care of what you have to take care of on a daily basis. We're into short-term goals more than long-term goals.

~Chip Kelly

When a warrior goes down, you pick up his shield and go play in honor of him.

~Chip Kelly

You don't get a trophy after halftime. We don't look at the scoreboard until the end of the game.

~Chip Kelly

I'm not going to mortgage the Eagles' future for Marcus Mariota.

~Chip Kelly

I think there's a lot of different things that factor into playing good defense, and you just can't say, "All right, if we just hold on to the ball long enough, we're going to play good defense."

~Chip Kelly

I have some unfinished business to complete at the University of Oregon.

~Chip Kelly

You have to run the football and stop the run, no matter what level you play at, whether it's high school, college or professional ranks. I'm a firm believer in that.

~Chip Kelly

Profiles mean nothing. You could say, 'I want this,' but then it's not out there.

~Chip Kelly

I think that's another misconception, [that] our quarterbacks run all the time. Quarterbacks can help you in the run game, they complement what you do, but it's a running back-driven run game.

~Chip Kelly

Tommy's [Gamble] an East Coast guy, so he kind of talks fast and in quick statements and phrases, so I understood him and he understood me, and we just hit it off.
