E-mail importance is defined by the receiver, not the sender.

~Chris Alexander

The marginal tax rate for high income earners is going up. Small businesses are no longer enjoying some of the exemption from payroll tax. Now there will be carbon taxes.

~Chris Alexander

The plant goes down. The industry is weaker. The price of the commodity has lagged. Any of those things can push people into unemployment or lower income categories, and that hurts.

~Chris Alexander

There are people who just haven't done as well in a globalized economy.

~Chris Alexander

People follow those who act like leaders, not those who proclaim themselves to be leaders.

~Chris Alexander

The Andrew Principle is when the incompetence of an organization exceeds the incompetence of certain individuals within that organization, thereby allowing their promotion within said organization.

~Chris Alexander

I'm totally in favour of meeting our Paris commitments to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. But I don't think we should do that by making ourselves uncompetitive.

~Chris Alexander

As Believers, we shine brightest in a sad and dark world; like a diamond that illuminates best when placed on black velvet.

~Chris Alexander

Move around, be nomadic, make each day a new horizon.

~Chris Alexander

We need to EARN the right to be leaders. It is to our peril when we are given things for which we are not qualified. For Believers, we must only engage in activities for which the Lord has called us.

~Chris Alexander

Absence of failure does not constitute success.

~Chris Alexander

All politics are local, whether in Kabul or in Canada.

~Chris Alexander

We Canadians need, as a country, to be much more present globally than we have been today.

~Chris Alexander

Politics is a profession, and a form of service, and it should draw people who are passionate and have deep experience of the complex, changing nature of the world.

~Chris Alexander

It's never too late to try to end a conflict.
