People are not born heroes or villains; they're created by the people around them.

~Chris Colfer

A villain is just a victim whose story hasn't been told.

~Chris Colfer

When people hurt you over and over, think of them like sand paper. They may scratch and hurt you a bit, but in the end, you end up polished and they end up useless.

~Chris Colfer

If you truly own who you are, no one can use you against you.

~Chris Colfer

I couldn't do country, with all due respect to all country music artists. My parents dressed me up with a cowboy hat and we'd go to the rodeo when I was younger and it traumatized me for life.

~Chris Colfer

You can't shy away from your greatness just because you're afraid you're not great enough

~Chris Colfer

Even in the worst of situations-even when it seems no one in the world appreciates you-as long as you have hope, everthing can get better

~Chris Colfer

Courage is one thing that no one can ever take away from you.
