Well, there's nothing better than putting your feet up on a Sunday afternoon and grabbing a good book.

~Chris Klein

My acting style and my physicality lends itself to doing things like putting a scene together for a dancing competition.

~Chris Klein

When a woman isn't feeling good about herself and you combine that with her period, eventually she'll ask you if you like her body. You have to say no.

~Chris Klein

You know, I consistently change in my own life so the roles I'm suitable for also change, and that's a really nice thing about this profession.

~Chris Klein

I've been a huge fan of the cable network FX for a very, very long time. I think their brand of comedy is incredible. For me, as an audience member, that's a go-to channel.

~Chris Klein

'Election' made zero money at the box office, but it started my career.

~Chris Klein

I love being an actor, and that's really the bottom line - in any medium, in any genre - and I want to do it.

~Chris Klein

I think, in my life and in my experience, teens have stress, and everybody's stress is unique, and everybody's frame of reference is different

~Chris Klein

I truly love being an actor. I love it with all my heart and soul, and I hope that I get to do it for a very long time.

~Chris Klein

When I started in the late nineties, it was all about young Hollywood. There were jobs for all of us if you were 18 to 21, were slightly good looking, or could be funny.

~Chris Klein

Well, acting has been a dream of mine since I can remember; being in the movies and acting, having those experiences.

~Chris Klein

For me, I've always been one that reads a script and has been ready, willing and able to go out and fight for parts.

~Chris Klein

There's a certain thought process about actors that they are in Hollywood and they sit around pools and get suntans and just get offered jobs.

~Chris Klein

Actually, I always dreamed about getting a gold medal in the 100-meter freestyle in Olympic swimming. I always thought that would be the epic award in sports to get.
