I can remember sittin in a cafe when I first started in rodeo, and waitin until somebody got done so I could finish what they left.

~Chris LeDoux

Sometimes a hard day's work is easier than a lot of things you can meet in life.

~Chris LeDoux

Sit tall in the saddle and hold your head up high. Keep your eyes fixed where the trail meets the sky, and live like you ain't afraid to die. Don't be scared...just enjoy the ride.

~Chris LeDoux

And takin' a bath in the creek. That's the stuff that really made it worthwhile. Anybody can stay in a motel.

~Chris LeDoux

You get to where you kind of like it, and It's a habit That's hard to break. I still find myself sittin' in a cafe, like a pizza parlor.

~Chris LeDoux

When I come up with an idea about the way I feel, I can really state it strongly in a song.

~Chris LeDoux

But if they ever saw a sunrise on a mountain morning/Watched those cotton candy clouds roll by/They'd know why I live beneath these Western Skies.

~Chris LeDoux

So it's probably eighty percent luck and twenty percent skill.

~Chris LeDoux

I admire bull riders for their passion and the uniqueness each one of them has.

~Chris LeDoux

Why not just do something a little more on the gentle side?

~Chris LeDoux

The breeding programs for the bulls have improved significantly. The bulls are at a much higher caliber.

~Chris LeDoux
