As soon as I feel people are talking too much about my character, it's time to leave.

~Chris Noth

By my third year of Law and Order, I was climbing the walls. But you don't leave a hit show, especially when you have a five-year contract.

~Chris Noth

Yoga's hard for me, but I know you can really feel the difference when you do it consistently. I'd rather be playing basketball.

~Chris Noth

I jumped into acting because it was fun. It was tougher when I had to take my fun seriously.

~Chris Noth

I always get involved with the environment because once you go past the tipping point with the environment, you don't get it back.

~Chris Noth

Success can be obviously a two way street.

~Chris Noth

I don't mind demanding women.

~Chris Noth

If you're an actor in your heart, no matter how much money they shove at you, it doesn't matter if the work doesn't provide that creative spark. You want out.

~Chris Noth

New York is all about sort of a corporate sensibility, and it is squeezed out room for any other kind of sensibility, money talks, bullshit walks, I guess.

~Chris Noth

You look around New York, and we are surrounded by restaurants and food trucks, and we celebrate food in this city like no tomorrow.

~Chris Noth

People are so phobic and crazed about this word 'commitment.' It's weird. Everyone has taken this word to a new height of morality.

~Chris Noth

I never wanted to be the lead on a TV drama. It just robs you of your life, really.

~Chris Noth

I don't want to be identified by any one role I do.

~Chris Noth

At this point in my life, I like the security of a job, while still having time for my young son and to pursue other creative work.

~Chris Noth

I have enough attention already. More, I don't really need.

~Chris Noth

No one ever takes my side.

~Chris Noth

As an actor you appreciate the security of a job. But I don't ever want to get too comfortable.

~Chris Noth

I like big casts. The experience of working together, that human contact - those are my roots, professionally.

~Chris Noth

Why don't we save time and you just tell me what I want?

~Chris Noth

At least Manhattan, in terms of danger and eccentricity, is much more of a theme park now. You couldn't really shoot the old Law & Order in New York today. It's a different city.

~Chris Noth

Everyone feels like family and I am back in the city that I love.

~Chris Noth

I cannot explain something that no one has ever figured out.

~Chris Noth

I don't know the politics of Hollywood. Am I hungry for great material? Every actor is. How I can get to it, that's another story.

~Chris Noth

Sex and the City changed New York-New York's become a big shoe store now, unfortunately.
