It is impossible to capture the essence, tolerance, and spirit of south Louisiana in words.

~Chris Rose

If there was no New Orleans, America would just be a bunch of free people dying of boredom." -Judy Deck in an e-mail sent to Chris Rose

~Chris Rose

The longer you live in New Orleans, the more unfit you become to live anywhere else.

~Chris Rose

we dance even if there's no radio. we drink at funerals. we talk too much & laugh too loud & live too large, and, frankly, we're suspicious of others who don't.

~Chris Rose

Mardi Gras is the love of life. It is the harmonic convergence of our food, our music, our creativity, our eccentricity, our neighborhoods, and our joy of living. All at once.

~Chris Rose

A New Orleans credo: When life gives you lemons--make daiquiris.

~Chris Rose

To be engaged in some small way in the revival of one of the great cities of the world is to live a meaningful existence by default.

~Chris Rose

...as bad as it is here, it's better than being somewhere else." -Chris Rose, regarding life in Post-Katrina New Orleans

~Chris Rose

Time is running out for the climate

~Chris Rose

Everybody here has a story. New Orleans was always a place where people talked too much even if they had nothing to say. Now everyone's got something to say.

~Chris Rose

Even at the End of Days, there will be lap dancing.

~Chris Rose

If you cannot improve upon the silence, do not speak.
