Haute Couture should be fun, foolish and almost unwearable.

~Christian Lacroix

I translated Beatles songs for my English class.

~Christian Lacroix

The idea of seeing everybody clad the same is not really my cup of tea

~Christian Lacroix

For me, elegance is not to pass unnoticed but to get to the very soul of what one is.

~Christian Lacroix

In Italy, the Milanese are well organized but follow bourgeois taste. They adhere to certain codes of elegance, but not to individualism.

~Christian Lacroix

I think it's always difficult to reconcile the needs of art and business.

~Christian Lacroix

We all look for lost time.

~Christian Lacroix

People want to be in their own fashion tribes, so they want to wear the same clothes to be connected to everyone else in that tribe. But they want to be different from other tribes.

~Christian Lacroix

The world needs some excitement from fashion.

~Christian Lacroix

There are days when I'm completely depressed and able to do only one drawing

~Christian Lacroix

I am still in love with couture because it is just two months from drawing pad to runway so everything on the catwalk is hot from the oven.

~Christian Lacroix

The exchange by e-mail is more intimate than conversation - you allow yourself to say things you otherwise wouldn't.

~Christian Lacroix

I look for friends who make me laugh.

~Christian Lacroix

Italy is a divided country without a center.

~Christian Lacroix

They say that the best furniture and clothing design from the '50s and '60s is Scandinavian or Milanese.

~Christian Lacroix

There's always some kind of hidden logic.

~Christian Lacroix

Fashion needs to be worn.

~Christian Lacroix

I'd experienced the '40s and '50s by looking at my grandparents' old clothes, books, and magazines

~Christian Lacroix

French design hardly exists, except as artificial modernism.

~Christian Lacroix

But the Milanese have made bad choices, bad fashion, and bad jewelry.

~Christian Lacroix

Going out in Paris was like going out in the '30s dressed like the Andrews Sisters. It was everything I'd seen in books at my grandparents' house, only it was our generation.

~Christian Lacroix

The notion of time bothers me. You look at thirty-year-old photographs and realize how the time has passed.

~Christian Lacroix

If I was a fashion designer just following trends or designing for celebrities, I would not be fulfilled.

~Christian Lacroix

I never loved the world around me as it was.

~Christian Lacroix

I am always anxious to know what has happened while I've been asleep.

~Christian Lacroix

But some one will say that this supreme Being, who made all things, and those also who conferred on men particular benefits, are entitled to their respective worship.

~Christian Lacroix

For me, I am still very happy to be able to do stage design as it's an opportunity to express the extreme.

~Christian Lacroix

With the development of the Christian Lacroix house in Paris and my work notably for the theater, it wasn't serious doing things by half.

~Christian Lacroix

That was the idea behind glam clubs like Seven and The New Eve. You could eat and dance to live music. To enter you had to descend a grand staircase.

~Christian Lacroix

Perhaps I shouldn't have been influenced by the idea that my name could be spread across the entire world.

~Christian Lacroix

I am not nostalgic for the past. And for me, being a museum curator was a childhood dream.

~Christian Lacroix

Since I was a child I've loved going to the opera, theatre and ballet.
