One of the most powerful tools for empowering individuals and communities is making certain that any individual who wants to receive a quality education can do so.

~Christine Gregoire

If we want unity, we must all be unifiers. If we want accountability, each of us must be accountable for all we do.

~Christine Gregoire

We may disagree on some things, but we can do so without being disagreeable.

~Christine Gregoire

It is up to us to live up to the legacy that was left for us, and to leave a legacy that is worthy of our children and of future generations.

~Christine Gregoire

Education is the foundation upon which we build our future.

~Christine Gregoire

I want to work on respecting individuals' dignity. Equal rights, that's where my heart is. That means equal rights and benefits, and that's what we need.

~Christine Gregoire

Education can lift individuals out of poverty and into rewarding careers.

~Christine Gregoire

We can leave our legacy only if we are willing to change - to go beyond partisan labels, and to solve the problems facing Washingtonians.

~Christine Gregoire

We are thinking ahead to long-term care, aware that many folks don't plan ahead and won't be ready. We want to see to it that people will have choices.

~Christine Gregoire

We need to take advantage of the opportunity we have now to create a vision and become great.

~Christine Gregoire

I will never be able to create a budget from scratch with the amount of time that I have, but my instructions remain the same: Give me a budget that has no new revenue.

~Christine Gregoire

Education exposes young people to a broader world, a world full of opportunity and hope.

~Christine Gregoire

It's our responsibility to pass on what we inherited, not to squander it, but to build on it.

~Christine Gregoire

All of us basically want the same things: opportunity for our children, and prosperity for our families and communities.

~Christine Gregoire

It was very constraining, much more than I ever would have thought, to run for governor.

~Christine Gregoire

I'm free. I'm free to say what I feel.

~Christine Gregoire

The US government should not be in the business of discrimination.

~Christine Gregoire

We all leave personal legacies for the people we know and love.

~Christine Gregoire

There is just no reason why the richest nation in the world can't provide health care to all its people.
