The U.S. is looking to India as more than just a marketplace for our defense products, but as a technology, aerospace and strategic partner for our future endeavors.

~Christopher Bond

Misdirected focus on paperwork, on procedures, and on bureaucracy frustrates teachers and fails to give children the education they need.

~Christopher Bond

As the Senator from Vermont was kind enough to note, I did have the experience of being commander in chief of our National Guard in Missouri for 8 years.

~Christopher Bond

One of the most widespread myths about the deal is that the Administration is outsourcing the security of our ports to a company from the United Arab Emirates.

~Christopher Bond

The death tax punishes the American dream - making it virtually impossible for the average American family to build wealth across generations.

~Christopher Bond

Change is tough, people don't like it, but it is necessary. Take two aspirins and call me in the morning.

~Christopher Bond

As we have heard, the end of al-Zarqawi is a significant blow to al-Qaida operations in Iraq. It is another clear indication of the progress we are making.

~Christopher Bond

A number of the major terrorist captures we have made, the terrorist operations designed for the United States that we have interrupted, were enabled by the terrorist tracking program.

~Christopher Bond

No one who knows my personal situation would think I am not sympathetic to the needs of the active forces.

~Christopher Bond

Reducing the budget for Amtrak makes no sense unless the Administration is prepared to implement a reform strategy which can be supported by the budget request.

~Christopher Bond

Remember, we know the end of the story of World War II and the Cold War. But day by day, living in fear of the Nazis and then in fear of the Soviets, the outcome was by no means certain.

~Christopher Bond

For the vast majority of places in America, there is no way you can build a security system such as we have here because of the high priority this rates in terms of terrorist interests.

~Christopher Bond

America's workers face a battle for their jobs. They are the finest workers in the world. American workers grow, harvest, and mine some of the world's highest quality and most plentiful raw materials.

~Christopher Bond

The death tax is one of the leading causes of the dissolution of small businesses.

~Christopher Bond

It is U.S. workers who lose out when employers cannot get the high-tech graduates they need to compete with foreign companies in the 21st century economy.

~Christopher Bond

According to the Small Business Administration, more than 70 percent of all family businesses do not survive through the second generation, and 8 percent do not make it to a third.

~Christopher Bond

We need to end permanently the tax that punishes American values of savings and investment and of building small businesses and family farms and ranches.

~Christopher Bond

While I support immigration regulated through a legal framework, I do not support rewarding those who broke the law to get here.

~Christopher Bond

My son is not wild about going back to Iraq, but he'd sure rather do that than sacrifice all that he and his fellow soldiers have accomplished by leaving too early and inviting chaos.

~Christopher Bond

Abroad, our most important policy is to support our troops and continue forward-thinking foreign policy in the war on terror - keeping our enemies on the run and hitting them before they hit us.

~Christopher Bond

History's lesson is to make the most of reform opportunities when they arise because they do not arise often and they do not last long.

~Christopher Bond

America demands invention and innovation to succeed.

~Christopher Bond

Workers come to America to fill jobs unwanted by Americans, but they are staying and they are not going home.
