~Christopher Dodd

It's easy for Americans to forget that the food they eat doesn't magically appear on a supermarket shelf.

~Christopher Dodd

We learned that economic growth and environmental protection can and should go hand in hand.

~Christopher Dodd

All Americans should have access to quality, affordable health care.

~Christopher Dodd

Our military should spare no expense to ensure the safety of our troops, particularly as they confront a hostile insurgency and roadside bombs throughout Iraq.

~Christopher Dodd

Our children are our greatest resource and Head Start grants help them reach their full potential.

~Christopher Dodd

America's highways, roads, bridges, are an indispensable part of our lives. They link one end of our nation to the other. We use them each and every day, for every conceivable purpose.

~Christopher Dodd

Entrenched bureaucracies are always opposed to fundamental changes.

~Christopher Dodd

When the public's right to know is threatened, and when the rights of free speech and free press are at risk, all of the other liberties we hold dear are endangered.

~Christopher Dodd

Our seniors have worked long and hard to better the economy, raise families and serve their communities. They deserve to live independent and active lives in their golden years.

~Christopher Dodd

Eight more days and I can start telling the truth again

~Christopher Dodd

We owe it to each other - and to our children and grandchildren - to leave our planet in a better state than when we found it.

~Christopher Dodd

As the temperature drops, the need for heating oil goes up.

~Christopher Dodd

Connecticut's first responders and defense workers work every day to help us achieve these goals.
