It is time for conservatives to do what they do best and insist that a wasteful, inefficient government program gets off the books. Small government and the death penalty don't go together.

~Christy Clark

We all say things when we are trying to get elected.

~Christy Clark

I would ask that people judge us, judge me, based on our record, based on what we actually did.

~Christy Clark

We have the resources the world needs. We can build a path for them to get there. That's that delicate balance that we find.

~Christy Clark

I'm conscious of competitive issues, but at the same time the recommendation they make is that we protect citizens by not adding to the overall tax burden of the province.

~Christy Clark

I just think about how many women in their workplaces have been working to get a promotion, and they look around, and then this guy comes.

~Christy Clark

How are we going to know what impact that has on the greenhouse gas emissions? How are we going to hold everybody accountable for doing their part?

~Christy Clark

We do need the federal government to share information with us. We need local governments to increase supply. We need affordable places for people to live.
