Chuck Knox Quotes

Winning and losing are both very temporary things. Having done one or the other, you move ahead. Gloating over a victory or sulking over a loss is a good way to stand still.

~Chuck Knox

They say the breaks even up in the long run, and the trick is to be a long-distance runner.

~Chuck Knox

Practice without improvement is meaningless.

~Chuck Knox

Winners bring reality up to their vision. Losers bring their vision down to reality.

~Chuck Knox

Repeated actions are stored as habits. If the repeated actions aren't fundamentally sound, then what comes out in a game can't be sound. What comes out will be bad habits.

~Chuck Knox

Don't bemoan your fate. Everybody's not going to be dealt the same hand. Everybody's going to go through tough times.

~Chuck Knox

Always have a plan and believe in it. I tell my coaches not to compromise. Nothing good happens by accident.

~Chuck Knox

Most of my cliches aren't original.

~Chuck Knox

Remember your six P's - Perfect Practice Prevents Piss Poor Performance.

Chuck Knox Quotes

~Chuck Knox

I knew I could make a good living working in the mills, ... I decided I didn't want to fuss with the rest of it, so I hitch-hiked back home.

~Chuck Knox

One of the most important qualities for any young athlete is the ability to believe in oneself. If you have confidence in yourself, in your teammates and your coach, you will succeed.

~Chuck Knox

Conservative coaches have one thing in common; they are unemployed.

~Chuck Knox

If you could have won, you should have.

~Chuck Knox

Football players win football games.
