In good comedy, the structure comes from truth and that weird eye that looks at the way life is.

~Ciaran Hinds

The freedom to make my own mistakes is all I've ever wanted

~Ciaran Hinds

Conflict sometimes produces results, but more often than not it produces confusion at the level of everybody on the same track.

~Ciaran Hinds

If all you've got to do is a couple of lines, dear Jesus, don't let them down. Other people are taking responsibility.

~Ciaran Hinds

I quite enjoy more teamwork and offering something up into the mix.

~Ciaran Hinds

In fact, most of the work that I have done for the American Hollywood things have not been in Hollywood. The studios are going out in Europe or around the place working.

~Ciaran Hinds

I don't use the word 'artists' lightly.

~Ciaran Hinds

I've worked a lot with Noah Baumbach, and he doesn't make it easy to like his characters, but the stories are funny and witty and there's an edge to that kind of humanity.

~Ciaran Hinds

Casting is very, very important.

~Ciaran Hinds

You know, Christianity has its own superstition anyway: Why you turn three times, what this saint means, why you pray to the patron saint of lost causes, why you go this way or that way.

~Ciaran Hinds

I float from one project to another project, so you miss people and you don't see them for years.

~Ciaran Hinds

You get to an age when you lose people close to you.

~Ciaran Hinds

I know I don't go looking for directors.

~Ciaran Hinds

I'm not a comic person at all.
