God is not a celestial prison warden jangling the keys on a bunch of lifers--he's a shepherd seeking for sheep, a woman searching for coins, a father waiting for his son.

~Clarence Jordan

What the poor need is not charity but capital, not caseworkers but coworkers. And what the rich need is a wise, honorable and just way of divesting themselves of their overabundance.

~Clarence Jordan

What the poor need is not charity, but capital, not caseworkers but coworkers.

~Clarence Jordan

The crowning evidence that he lives is not a vacant grave, but a spirit-filled fellowship. Not a rolled-away stone, but a carried-away church.

~Clarence Jordan

The measure of a Christian is not in the height of his grasp but in the depth of his love

~Clarence Jordan

Now faith is the turning of dreams into deeds. It is betting your life on the unseen realities

~Clarence Jordan

Faith is not belief in spite of evidence but a life in scorn of the consequences.

~Clarence Jordan

Fear is the polio of the soul which prevents our walking by faith.

~Clarence Jordan

Fear is the polio of the soul. Faith is the life based on unseen realities; it is the word become flesh.
