I am who I am and I don't think you can put a label on it.

~Cody Johnson

I just continue to be myself and give this thing over to the good lord, just do my best every night and pretend like it's just any other job.

~Cody Johnson

When your songs are like your babies, even the one that you know aren't great, you still love.

~Cody Johnson

I try not to keep my head in the clouds .

~Cody Johnson

I think if you expect it to do well, you come off a little bit cocky.

~Cody Johnson

I think everything moving forward will just be instinctual, like we'll know exactly which doors to walk through when they open.

~Cody Johnson

In my opinion, if you buy a ticket to see me you're buying experience. People don't want to see me stand there and play guitar, they want to party with us.

~Cody Johnson

I'd love to do a live record, I'd love to do an acoustic record, I'm already thinking about what I may want to do with the next studio record.

~Cody Johnson

I try to make sure that, when I'm writing, I don't put too much Cody in it. But I don't want to lose it either.

~Cody Johnson

I have a conscience, man, and I've worked really hard to keep it where you would feel like you were talking to the same man at one of my shows or sitting down at my dinner table.

~Cody Johnson

I don't like reality TV as far as it being scripted and not being true reality.

~Cody Johnson

I absolutely believe that what you sing and how you act when you're in this position, should be the definition of who you are and where your heart and character stands.

~Cody Johnson

I don't know about one moment that has pivoted my career. I do know that one thing that hit me and made me take a few steps back was a year at Steamboat.

~Cody Johnson

My album was recorded in Nashville. It used to be all about "We're from Texas, forget Nashville," well you'll never hear me say that. Nashville isn't bad as long as you're true to yourself.
