As long as algebra is taught in school, there will be prayer in school.

~Cokie Roberts

A lot of women have come to understand that you can't just show up and say I'm unhappy, you have to then go out and do something.

~Cokie Roberts

Women rely on friends. ... That's where we draw sustenance and find safety. We can count on our women friends when we need a good laugh or a good cry.

~Cokie Roberts

Our civic society is really all we have by way of nationhood.

~Cokie Roberts

I always wanted children, but not until they were actually part of my life did I realize that I could love that fiercely, or get that angry.

~Cokie Roberts

Times do keep changing - thank God.

~Cokie Roberts

Women's roles are diminished for obvious reasons. It's the men whose names are on the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, and who were generals and soldiers.

~Cokie Roberts

No matter what else they're doing, women are also always nurturing.

~Cokie Roberts

Martha Washington. I think she's done herself a disservice in history with a little cap, you know? She looks like a namby-pamby little grandmotherly type, but she turned out to be a very strong woman.

~Cokie Roberts

I've known Al Gore since he was born. He has been the best little boy, he was a boring child, and he has never done anything wrong.

~Cokie Roberts

I mean it's - it is hard to find a voice on talk radio that is not a conservative voice.
