Well, Ive always been a character actor, you know, and you always get your share of character actors who are bad guys.

~Colm Meaney

I do probably 80 or 90 per cent of the cooking at home.

~Colm Meaney

As an actor, I like to get a bit of momentum going with a character and kind of work a bit quicker. I mean, not crazy-fast, but, you know, five or six pages a day is a nice pace.

~Colm Meaney

A good comedy's very hard to make, so good comic writing I really enjoy.

~Colm Meaney

You never know when the publicity people will feel it is a good time to release the film.

~Colm Meaney

The digital revolution has changed the way we do things because you're not under that pressure that film is precious and film is expensive.

~Colm Meaney

I usually read a script from an audience perspective first, and then look more closely at the character only.

~Colm Meaney

Normally when I'm sent a script I'll read it through to see how it hangs as a story and then I'll go back and read it through again and look at the character.

~Colm Meaney

My old manager of the Irish National Theatre said 'Don't worry about being a star, just worry about being a working actor. Just keep working.' I think that's really good advice.
