I try to carve my own way so the actors who come after me will say, "I want to do it like Columbus did it."

~Columbus Short

With films, you completely immerse yourself in a character, get into who they are, live it and then release it.

~Columbus Short

The point of acting is to hide yourself and get lost in character. To play the same character in eighteen movies would be defeating the purpose I believe so I try to keep a little bit of diversity.

~Columbus Short

I want to play Martin Luther King. I want to tell the real story, his demons, his struggles as a man, not just as a hero but fallible, I want to show that side.

~Columbus Short

I'm a silly guy, I love wit and cynicism and sarcasm.

~Columbus Short

I don't want to do action that doesn't mean anything. Everything I do I want to have character development and three-dimensional characters, fallible humans, and this is definitely one of them.

~Columbus Short

I was struggling with drugs, I had a lot on my plate, and you know, I was using unhealthy ways to kind of self-medicate and deal with a lot of heavy duty stuff in my life.

~Columbus Short

I can say with full sincerity that I am happy. I'm happy because I'm doing what I love and I'm not selling out. And I can sleep at night because I'm at peace with it.

~Columbus Short
