The reason why I like theater is because it's a long journey, and no matter what role you play, we are all in it together.

~Condola Rashad

When I'm in Los Angeles, sometimes I hesitate saying that I'm an actor because people are like, "Of course you are." And I'm like "No, not, 'Of course I am.'"

~Condola Rashad

My first exploration through art was really through music - I've trained classically with piano for about ten years.

~Condola Rashad

My mom was really busy when I was growing up, but she did a really good job in terms of balancing her home life with her professional life. She basically took me everywhere.

~Condola Rashad

I grew up in the theater with my mom and that's how I knew I wanted to be an actor in the first place.

~Condola Rashad

The way I work emotionally is: I don't ever try to cry. I try not to, which is what for me produces organic emotion.

~Condola Rashad

I started playing piano when I was around four; that's my first passion.

~Condola Rashad

I wasn't even a theater kid in high school. I studied classical piano, and I ran track.

~Condola Rashad

Theater is a lot more interactive, more of a cohesive unit. With television, it can be a different director every episode.

~Condola Rashad

In L.A., being an actor is like a pastime, everybody there is like, "I was on this reality show; I'm an actor." It becomes a word that is loosely thrown around.

~Condola Rashad

[In New York,] when you say you're an actor, there's a certain level of respect that goes with that.

~Condola Rashad

My thing is that if you don't really connect to something or see that it's going to be something you're going to be proud of, I wouldn't do it.

~Condola Rashad

Personally, especially as a young black woman, I didn't think that Los Angeles was a place for me to start. There's a certain type that they go for or don't.

~Condola Rashad

My view of myself as an artist expanded because of the time I spent at Cal Arts.

~Condola Rashad

One day I'm not busy at all; the next day I have work for months - that's kind of the way it works!

~Condola Rashad

Im a songwriter and Id love to make that a part of my career.

~Condola Rashad

I think even when I was little there was signs that I was an artist. I've always been an artist.

~Condola Rashad

I prefer theater and film. I did a little television, and obviously I'm not knocking it. It can be great, and it does pay the bills. But it's a little bit more disjointed.

~Condola Rashad

Shakespeare teaches you how to act. You come out of this process as a better actor. It's just the nature of the words he writes.
