The thing about Nashville is, it's not just country music...There's rock & roll, there's every kind of music. It's just a music town...There's so much fun stuff to get in to.

~Connie Britton

The thing about taking risks is, if it's really a risk, you really can fail. It's only a pretend risk if you really can't fail.

~Connie Britton

My life started being awesome five years ago.

~Connie Britton

My twin sister, my cousin, and I used to write and perform plays for my family. We raided the closets for costumes and fought over parts. I'm sure I was the bossiest one.

~Connie Britton

I'm obsessed with 'Thelma and Louise,' and therefore obsessed with Callie Khouri who wrote that movie.

~Connie Britton

I always want to stretch myself and do something that I haven't done before.

~Connie Britton

It's funny - my married friends tell me all the time, 'What you have is so much easier.' When you're doing it on your own, you don't have to [argue over] how you're raising the kids.

~Connie Britton

My whole background is theater, and theater is to some degree presentational.

~Connie Britton

Divorce is hard. I was about 29 when my husband and I split up. I think we probably fared better than most, because we were young and didn't have kids - but divorce is hard.

~Connie Britton

I grew up singing. My mother was a music teacher.
