I'm busy and that's the way I like it - when I have too much downtime I get into trouble.

~Craig Charles

We were the only black family in an estate with 1,000 white families. Liverpool being quite racist in the Sixties, it was a bit grim growing up.

~Craig Charles

Critics called me 'egregious' - I had to look that one up - and 'creepy', but now I don't read them, I weigh them.

~Craig Charles

My life has been, I suppose, the most incredible series of highs and lows.

~Craig Charles

Once journalists have been rifling through your dustbins, you do try and keep them at arms' length.

~Craig Charles

It's evolve or die, really, you have to evolve, you have to move on otherwise it just becomes stagnant.

~Craig Charles

The inventory process and stepping back in your life can sometimes be a very dark process. But it also can be extremely funny and surprising.

~Craig Charles

I have a stepladder. It's a very nice stepladder but it's sad that I never knew my real ladder.

~Craig Charles

I was thinking - if we get a cell with a trouser press, we can make cheese toasties.

~Craig Charles

Who needs drugs when you have Takeshi's Castle?

~Craig Charles

It's not supposed to be easy, if it's easy, it's no good, that's the way I look at it.

~Craig Charles

I've got wealth and fame but I haven't changed my roots.

~Craig Charles

British fans are exceptional, but the American fans are something else. Some of them fly 500 miles to stand in line for three hours, just to meet me, then when they do they collapse.

~Craig Charles

For me, everything has always been an accident.

~Craig Charles

Prison widens your circle of friends. In my stand-up, I can now talk about things that no one else has the right to touch.

~Craig Charles

I've been very lucky, this is my 30th year on TV.
