On my first date, my boyfriend asked me if I wanted to eat a la carte, and I said that I would prefer to stay inside!

~Cristin Milioti

I love movies, but I think people think relationships are supposed to go how they go in movies. The ones I like are the ones that represent life.

~Cristin Milioti

I don't think there are hour comedies, but if there were, I would have been open to it.

There's nothing like theater. It's really amazing. But it does take up all of your time. I would like to get into more film, just because I find it super fascinating.

~Cristin Milioti

That's what's so cool about 'Once:' There is a layer of darker stuff, but it's balanced by this incredible light.

~Cristin Milioti

I did plays in high school and I really loved it, but I think singing was always what I loved most of all.
