It is all right for the lion and the lamb to lie down together if they are both asleep, but if one of them begins to get active, it is dangerous.

~Crystal Eastman

A good deal of tyranny goes by the name of protection.

~Crystal Eastman

The average man has a carefully cultivated ignorance about household matters - from what to do with the crumbs to the grocer's telephone number - a sort of cheerful inefficiency which protects him.

~Crystal Eastman

I am not interested in women just because they're women. I am interested, however, in seeing that they are no longer classed with children and minors.

~Crystal Eastman

If the feminist program goes to pieces on the arrival of the first baby, it's false and useless.

~Crystal Eastman

The last thing a man becomes progressive about is the activities of his own wife.

~Crystal Eastman

Indifference is harder to fight than hostility, and there is nothing that kills an agitation like having everybody admit that it is fundamentally right.

~Crystal Eastman

While American men are fighting to rid the old world of autocracy let American women set to and rid the new world of this intolerable old burden of sex ignorance.

~Crystal Eastman

It is not so much that women have a different point of view in politics as that they give a different emphasis. And this is vastly important, for politics is so largely a matter of emphasis.

~Crystal Eastman

I would not have a woman go to Congress merely because she is a woman.

~Crystal Eastman

Life is a big battle for the complete feminist.

~Crystal Eastman

[S]exual intercourse remains a means or the means of psychologically making a woman inferior.
