I could fall in love with a supernatural creature because I think it's hot having super powers and being a little bit of a badass.

~Crystal Reed

Honesty in art inspires and moves me. I am passionate about creating truthful experiences as much as I love being the spectator to a brilliant body of work.

~Crystal Reed

I think there's something to be said for being physical in acting.

~Crystal Reed

I'm not interested in fame at all.

~Crystal Reed

I don't care if people know who I am or if I make a ton of money, I just love my work so much.

~Crystal Reed

Psychology was going to be my minor in college. I've always been really interested in the human mind, which is probably why I'm an actor.

~Crystal Reed

The secret to scooping ice cream is all about the scooper. You have to dip it in water before and after every scoop. Then it just rolls off.

~Crystal Reed

I hope that's how it is on every set - or that Teen Wolf goes on forever! Our cast is so honest with each other. There's no drama. There's no judgment. We just click. It's like a family.

~Crystal Reed

There's something to be said about sitting in front of the TV and being removed from your own life and just pushed into another one.

~Crystal Reed

I went to prom with my boyfriend, but after the dance he left me at a party all by myself. It was awful!

~Crystal Reed

Acting is really therapeutic for me, personally. That's something that I'll always remember. I don't know how it's going to look, but I gave it my heart and soul.

~Crystal Reed

I feel like a good director provokes you to ask questions about your character, but doesn't answer them for you.

~Crystal Reed

I loved rollerskating when I was younger.

~Crystal Reed

I feel like every couple years MTV reinvents itself in some way, you know?
