My father left me with a saying that I've carried my entire life and tried to pass on to our kids: 'Tough times don't last, tough people do,'

~Curt Schilling

I'm not sure I can think of any scenario more enjoyable than making 55,000 people from New York shut up.

~Curt Schilling

In baseball, I was always in control of everything until I let the ball go.

~Curt Schilling

Most guys who don't like me are either Democrats or Yankee fans.

~Curt Schilling

War is by no means something glamorous, and I don't think that should ever be forgotten.

~Curt Schilling

It is all about rehab. Most doctors can make you 100 percent well physically. I would tell you that it is 25 percent about the surgery and 75 percent about the rehab.

~Curt Schilling

I've got a wife, four kids, a business, and a baseball career.

~Curt Schilling

One of the walls of my bedroom was a collage of about 15 years of baseball photos. I would cut out the baseball pictures from every issue and I had this huge montage of thousands of pictures.

~Curt Schilling

I don't miss anything I did for a living.

~Curt Schilling

I've made mistakes, I've misspoke, I am sure I will again sometime, but that happens, that's part of being human in my book. I'm OK with that. I've never done it maliciously, ever.

~Curt Schilling

I've always wanted to be the best in the world as a baseball player, so when I started to think about opening a business, it was with that mindset.

~Curt Schilling

Baseball is not a sport you can achieve individually.

~Curt Schilling

The money I saved during baseball was probably all gone. I'm tapped out.

~Curt Schilling

I've been playing games for 30 years, and I've been a hard-core gamer.

~Curt Schilling

On a two week road trip I know I can get by better with no underwear than no laptop.

~Curt Schilling

I don't pitch for contracts.

~Curt Schilling

A lot of my theories were not applicable as a closer

~Curt Schilling

I've been called a lot of things. But never, and I mean never, could anyone ever make the mistake of calling me a Yankee fan.

~Curt Schilling

Before I pitch any game, from spring training to Game 7 of the World Series, I'm scared to death.

~Curt Schilling

When you're having a bad day at work, a lot of times it's your head. When you're having good days, a lot of times it's the absence of the mind.

~Curt Schilling

I've had teammates I didn't get along with, who hasn't? I've never had a teammate call me a bad guy, while he was my teammate, and if he did when I was gone what kind of teammate was he anyway?

~Curt Schilling

In my mind, I never doubted whether I was going to achieve what I wanted to do. I just had to decide what it is I wanted to do.

~Curt Schilling

The bigger the game the better. I'm an adrenaline junkie. I feed off big crowds and noise.

~Curt Schilling

Every dollar I can't commit to my company that's paid in taxes is paying a government that I believe is too big and doing way too much that I don't want done.

~Curt Schilling

I was a very weird amalgam of things as a kid.

~Curt Schilling

People love to say we get paid a lot of money to play a game, but it stopped being a game when you start getting paid.

~Curt Schilling

I'm a good person. I don't wish hateful things on people. I don't hate anybody. I know that I treat people right.

~Curt Schilling

There's not a long track record of people leaving professional sports to become a software developer.

~Curt Schilling

It really is not that complicated, I just don't understand HOW people don't grasp the concept of 'Free Market', and why left alone, it WORKS!

~Curt Schilling
