~Cyndi Lauper

My torso is short, but my arms are really long and gangly and my legs and my neck, and my feet and hands are really long, and I look like a duck.

~Cyndi Lauper

It's a strange lesson to learn in life that your differences, the things that make you feel uncomfortable about yourself are what will help you to grow into who you are. Those are your gifts.

~Cyndi Lauper

On my darkest days, I wear my brightest colors.

~Cyndi Lauper

Humour is a great vehicle for getting a message across. If you get too serious, you could die of starch.

~Cyndi Lauper

Everyoneâ€”whether straight, gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgenderâ€”should be allowed to show their true colors, and be accepted and loved for who they are.

~Cyndi Lauper

You always have to remember - no matter what you're told - that God loves all the flowers, even the wild ones that grow on the side of the highway.

~Cyndi Lauper

Some boys take a beautiful girl and hide her away from the rest of the world, I want to be the one to walk in the sun.

~Cyndi Lauper

Understand where it is you want to go. Then picture yourself there. If you can picture yourself there, then you can be there. Bottom line.

~Cyndi Lauper

People can save the world by the way they think and by the way they behave and what they hold to be important.

~Cyndi Lauper

If you want a strong society, it has to be inclusive. If you have to push a boulder up a hill, do you want 10 people or 100? If you weed out colour or gender, you get 10.

~Cyndi Lauper

In the darkest place, shed the brightest light.

~Cyndi Lauper

I'm not gonna worry about what people think about me. I'm too busy. I don't give a hoot.

~Cyndi Lauper

You know, I do speak the Queens English. It's just the wrong Queens that's all. It's over the 59th Street Bridge. It's not over the Atlantic Ocean.

~Cyndi Lauper

If you can't go one way, there's many ways to get where you're going.

So you just take a step back and see beyond the wall.

~Cyndi Lauper
