We are way more powerful when we turn to each other and not on each other, when we celebrate our diversity, focus on our commonality, and together tear down the mighty walls of injustice.

~Cynthia McKinney

The American people might have a criminal syndicate running their government.

~Cynthia McKinney

It now becomes clear why the Bush Administration has been vigorously opposing congressional hearings. The Bush Administration has been engaged in a conspiracy of silence.

~Cynthia McKinney

If deliberate distortion of reality by corporate media could be effectively prosecuted in the United States, the entire industry would be behind bars.

~Cynthia McKinney

It is at this moment, when things appear so bleak that we must redouble our efforts and not give up. We must believe that we can remake the world in a more peaceful reality.

~Cynthia McKinney

The situation in the United States is becoming more dire for average ordinary Americans, and the last thing we need to do is to spend money on death, destruction and war.

~Cynthia McKinney

I can't be calm when I drive through sections of Atlanta that look more like Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of Congo, than America.

~Cynthia McKinney

African Americans have always known that a little bit of paranoia was healthy for us.

~Cynthia McKinney

How is it that we can entrust the solutions for the problems that confront our country today to those who are complicit in their creation?

~Cynthia McKinney

Every dollar that is printed should not represent a debt to private bankers. It should represent an investment potential in the common good, in the common needs of our country.

~Cynthia McKinney

Al Gore's Negro tolerance level has never been too high. I've never known him to have more than one black person around him at any given time.

~Cynthia McKinney

Yes, the Green Party is committed to a healthy environment. But the Green Party is not solely committed to just that.

~Cynthia McKinney

Eight generations of African-Americans are still waiting to achieve their rights - compensation and restitution for the hundreds of years during which they were bought and sold on the market.

~Cynthia McKinney

We don't really know who killed Martin Luther King. We don't really know who killed Bobby Kennedy. We don't really know who killed John Kennedy. We don't really know who killed Tupac Shakur.

~Cynthia McKinney

Voter caging and voter ID laws exist to disfranchise voters.

~Cynthia McKinney

To any honest observer, Zimbabwe's sin is that it has taken the position to right a wrong, whose resolution has been too long overdue--to return its land to its people.

~Cynthia McKinney

It's clear that the United States has more to give the world than military bases.

~Cynthia McKinney

The Greens have never been on the ballot in Georgia because of restrictive ballot access laws.

~Cynthia McKinney

There's been a long-standing relationship between me and individual members of the Green Party.

~Cynthia McKinney

Well, I am not afraid of the word 'liberal.'

~Cynthia McKinney

What I was doing was servicing the needs of my constituents and I was not allowed to do that because I did not toe the line on U.S. policy for Israel.

~Cynthia McKinney

Silence is the deadliest weapon of mass destruction.

~Cynthia McKinney

I believe that when it comes to major foreign policy issues, many prefer to have black people seen and not heard.
