I may climb perhaps to no great heights, but I will climb alone.

~Cyrano de Bergerac

A kiss is a rosy dot over the 'i' of loving.

~Cyrano de Bergerac

Prometheus heretofore went up to Heaven, and stole fire from thence.
Have not I as much Boldness as he?

~Cyrano de Bergerac

A large nose is the mark of a witty, courteous, affable, generous and liberal man.

~Cyrano de Bergerac

Perish the universe, provided I have my revenge!

~Cyrano de Bergerac

This veridic nose arrives everywhere a quarter of an hour before its master. Ten shoemakers, good round fat ones too, go and sit down to work under it out of the rain.

~Cyrano de Bergerac

Well - when I write my book, and tell the tale
Of my adventures - all these little stars
That shake out of my cloak - I must save those
To use for asterisks.

~Cyrano de Bergerac

After a while the press of business in the province put an end to our philosophizing, and I returned with increased determination to my plans to fly to the Moon.
