Whatever the cost of repentance, it is swallowed up in the joy of forgiveness.

~D. Todd Christofferson

True success in this life comes in consecrating our lives—that is, our time and choices—to God's purposes. In so doing, we permit Him to raise us to our highest destiny.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The greatest service we can provide to others in this life, beginning with those of our own family, is to bring them to Christ.

~D. Todd Christofferson

We do not need to achieve some minimum level or capacity or goodness before God will help - divine aid can be ours every hour of every day, no matter where we are in the path of obedience.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The central purpose of all scripture is to fill our souls with faith in God the Father and in His Son, Jesus Christ.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Any pain entailed in repentance will always be far less than the suffering required to satisfy justice for unresolved transgression.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Many things are good, many are important, but only a few are essential.

~D. Todd Christofferson

As men of the priesthood, we have an essential role to play in society, at home, and in the Church. But we must be men that women can trust, that children can trust, and that God can trust.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Work builds and refines character, creates beauty, and is the instrument of our service to one another and to God.

~D. Todd Christofferson

A mother can exert an influence unequalled by any other person in any other relationship.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Keep going and the Lord will help you.

~D. Todd Christofferson

What does God want me to do with the resources, time, and talents He has given me?

~D. Todd Christofferson

Moral discipline is the consistent exercise of agency to choose the right because it is right, even when it is hard.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The gospel of Jesus Christ opens the path to what we may become.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Freedom comes not from resisting truth, but from applying it.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The gifts of the Holy Spirit are testimony, faith, knowledge, wisdom, revelations, miracles, healing, and charity, to name but a few.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Only through repentance do we gain access to the atoning grace of Jesus Christ.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Take responsibility and go to work so God has something to help us with.

~D. Todd Christofferson

All of us can meet God's high expectations.

~D. Todd Christofferson

A covenant is an agreement between God and man, an accord whose terms are set by God.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Of all your associations, it is your relationship with God, your Heavenly Father, who is the source of your moral power.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Women bring with them into the world a certain virtue, a divine gift that makes them adept at instilling such qualities as faith, courage, empathy and refinement in relationships and in cultures.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The greatest good we can do in helping others become what they can become will be to lead them to the Savior.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Integrity is fundamental to being men. Integrity means being truthful, but it also means accepting responsibility and honoring commitments and covenants.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Everyone has gifts; everyone can contribute.

~D. Todd Christofferson

In creating a family, we fulfill our greatest purpose on earth.

~D. Todd Christofferson

You cannot lift others to virtue on the one hand if you are entertaining vice on the other.

~D. Todd Christofferson

The work of our missionaries is a magnificent expression of the Lord's redeeming love.

~D. Todd Christofferson

Quorum and group leaders should provide the leading voice and laboring oar in every ward and branch council regarding retention of converts.

~D. Todd Christofferson

A God who makes no demands, is the functional equivalent of a God who does not exist.
