~Dakota Fanning

I do feel very American. I think it's something I'm proud of and proud to be by chance born here. Honestly, that's something I think about.

~Dakota Fanning

I love who I am and I love my life, but if I could be someone else, I'd be Beyonce in two seconds.

~Dakota Fanning

I don't throw my clothes out after one wear. Shocking, I know.

~Dakota Fanning

My job is all about getting inside another person's mind and thoughts.

~Dakota Fanning

Acting is what I love to do. I wouldn't trade it for the world. I don't think of it as work. It's really fun for me.

~Dakota Fanning

It can be easy to get caught up in craziness or insecurity.

~Dakota Fanning

It's something that's always been there for me, that I have huge blue eyes - it's been something that people have always talked about.

~Dakota Fanning

I really enjoy what I'm doing. I think you have to have a good time and not look too far back or too far ahead.

~Dakota Fanning

I learned to read at two. I was in a Montessori school and they teach you to read really, really young.

~Dakota Fanning

People recognize me all the time. I think it's really nice. I don't mind it at all. It feels kind of surreal when people know who you are and I think that it's really cool.

~Dakota Fanning

I never skimp on TV. I watch an embarrassing amount of TV shows. I don't even know how I do it.

~Dakota Fanning

My parents never talked to me like I was a kid. Maybe that's why I've been seen as mature.

~Dakota Fanning

The gunshot holds no fear!

~Dakota Fanning

Dear God, I do not ask for health or wealth. People ask you so often that you can't have any left. Give me, God, what else you have. Give me what no-one else asks for. Amen.

~Dakota Fanning

It's what I love about what I do and the life that I'm able to have and be able to just be so normal one day and be here the next...I feel so lucky to be able to do what I do.

~Dakota Fanning
