The comfort zone is the great enemy to creativity; moving beyond it necessitates intuition, which in turn configures new perspectives and conquers fears.

~Dan Stevens

What was interesting was talking to older gay men about what it was like being gay in the Eighties.

~Dan Stevens

I've had to learn when not to tweet. Like, you learn how to keep your mouth shut? Learn to keep your tweet shut.

~Dan Stevens

All my early school reports from the age of 5 were 'Daniel must learn not to distract others.'

~Dan Stevens

I don't see money or a particular status as an actor as a goal, but I want to do the best work I can in as interesting a range of roles as I can.

~Dan Stevens

I never quite toed the line.

~Dan Stevens

I'm shocked at being recognized.

~Dan Stevens

I do listen to a lot of music. Actually, I very often ask directors if they can offer up a play list. They very often have one anyway that they're listening to.

~Dan Stevens

It's the challenge of trying to evoke any kind of sympathy for a role that ordinarily we would say, "Oh, this is a bad guy" and dismiss him.

~Dan Stevens

I've never been a fan of directors who clutter a piece with all sorts of crazy preconceptions or weird ideas.

~Dan Stevens

Soap opera seems to be a dirty word, but actually they are the most popular shows we have.

~Dan Stevens

I haven't done as many films as I would have liked.

~Dan Stevens

Coming back to theatre is something I'm keen to do for the rest of my life. It recharges my batteries, so to speak.

~Dan Stevens

Books are my weakness.

~Dan Stevens

I don't think many people get to play big emotions in life.

~Dan Stevens

There is great worth in holding universal truths and timelessly beautiful words in your heart, which will stay there forever, infusing your thoughts and speech.

~Dan Stevens

I'm a huge fan of Eighties music.

~Dan Stevens

Family is hugely important to me. Having kids is the best possible way to shake off any kind of darkness that might accompany a role that you're playing.

~Dan Stevens

I've always enjoyed family movies anyway. And I grew up loving actors who could hop around and play in something very family friendly, big, playful - and then go and do drama and comedy as well.

~Dan Stevens

"I've never see you do something like this before and I'd love to see you try." For a young actor, that's about the most exciting thing that anyone can say to you.

~Dan Stevens

It's great when somebody is able to communicate an actual shot sequence to you and you know the world you're inhabiting with that. It's literally a haunting tune.

~Dan Stevens

I'm sure I wouldn't have been asked to judge the Man Booker if it weren't for 'Downton.'

~Dan Stevens

I was never very happy at school.

~Dan Stevens

I was a pretty difficult teenager.

~Dan Stevens

I don't know much about my biological background.

~Dan Stevens

I don't think there's ever a right time to have kids. I'm actually pretty glad it's happened quite young.

~Dan Stevens

I want to spend as much time as I can with my family, yet I'm aware of having to bring home the bacon.

~Dan Stevens

The female attention I have to struggle hardest with is from my two-year-old daughter.

~Dan Stevens

I'm shocked at being recognized. You go to places you don't think you would be and still, you are. Taxi drivers often recognise me... but I haven't got a free ride yet.

~Dan Stevens

I would like to do something modern and possibly funny.

~Dan Stevens

Everything's so accelerated now.

~Dan Stevens

You do feel a certain obligation to shows that raise your profile like 'Downton' has. But there are definitely other exciting opportunities out there.

~Dan Stevens

It's nice to get your glad rags on for awards like the Baftas, but it doesn't happen all the time.

~Dan Stevens

I always wanted to be an actor.

~Dan Stevens

I've been a lucky boy.
