I think the whole nerves thing comes into play when we worry about what other people and society will think.

~Dana Plato

In my opinion it's not about gay or straight or bi, we're attracted to spirits, whatever body they're in. There are other reasons too, but that's how I see it.

~Dana Plato

If it feels right and I'm not going against any energy in myself or the situation, there would be no limit.

~Dana Plato

I've learned through experience that life is never that bad. The secret is just paying attention to how you feel and not letting anyone else dictate what in your heart you know is right.

~Dana Plato

I'm tired of defending my character. I am what I am. What you see is what you get.

~Dana Plato

I'm okay in my skin, you know... I'm okay with who I am.

~Dana Plato

I've got to be honest, there's no pleasure when you're working.

~Dana Plato

I'd hopefully work through all my issues with men first so then I'd be okay being with a woman.

~Dana Plato

I like to go with the energy because when you ignore it that's when you start doing things wrong.

~Dana Plato

I have been sober for the longest time. Oh, it's over a decade now. No joke.

~Dana Plato

People have an awful lot of problems that society has put on them and a lot to work through because of it.

~Dana Plato

All that money stuff was so strange; all it ever meant to me was freedom from worry. I'm happier now than I've ever been but I still wish I had that money.

~Dana Plato

With women and women, I think there's an understanding. Nobody knows what a woman feels or experiences but another woman. We are the nurturers, and there are times when we need to be nurtured.

~Dana Plato

I'm learning to play by the rules. I sort of hate to think of it that way, but that's how it is. I'm really learning to function out there and in such a way that I don't need to drink.
