Boning is a pain, but it makes such a majestic chicken.

~Daniel Boulud

I learned from my grandmother, because we were cooking a lot for the farm. Breakfast, lunch, dinner.

~Daniel Boulud

A lot of young chefs today get carried away by trends, by influences, by movements.

~Daniel Boulud

From Japan to Thailand, I keep discovering amazing talent, cuisine and food markets.

~Daniel Boulud

If you aren't born here, to be a real New Yorker, you have to bring your talent, be a successful mentor, and support the New Yorkers who made the city by giving back.

~Daniel Boulud

I like to go hear jazz late-night up in Harlem.

~Daniel Boulud

I appreciate the constant evolution in refining food, but not in making food gimmicky.

~Daniel Boulud

After six years at Le Cirque, I decided to start my own business. I opened Daniel at 76th Street in May 93.

~Daniel Boulud

I am very concerned about nutrition and always try to be careful about what I eat.
