I never really know what I'm playing. I just follow what sounds good in my head and keep going.

~Daniel Powter

I realized the more I made the music for myself, the more successful I was becoming.

~Daniel Powter

I gave up that idea of trying to make music that I thought other people would want. I just made music for myself and music for people that I knew.

~Daniel Powter

I think people want to put you in a box and close it away so that it makes them feel better. A lot of musicians get that.

~Daniel Powter

I stayed involved with music my whole life. I was always playing with other people.

~Daniel Powter

I write everything. I have that control issue with my music. That's why I'm not in a band.

~Daniel Powter

I'm learning as I go. The music has drawn me out of my shell. It's made me open my door a little more and be able to look at people in the eye.

~Daniel Powter

Someone asked me if I was a method actor - I loved that! I needed to know what it felt like to lose everything just to do the Bad Day video! I could really feel the angst!

~Daniel Powter

I just did whatever it took to keep making music - I slept on couches. You would be amazed at how far $20 can go if you stretch it out.

~Daniel Powter

I just did whatever it took to keep making music - slept on couches. You would be amazed at how far $20 can go if you stretch it out.

~Daniel Powter

For me there is a reluctance to be in front of cameras. I love making music but with that comes a lot of responsibility and you have to put yourself out there more.

~Daniel Powter

I was doing stuff that for me was sort of more about playing real music.

~Daniel Powter

Someone asked me if I play piano because I feel like I have a protective wall around me. Maybe. I am really messed up.
