

Danny Glover Quotes

Black, Rights, People, Important, Trying, War, Issues, Children, White, Ideas, Movement, Country, Believe, Mother, Powerful, Cities, San Francisco, World, Thinking, Men

I was able to do The Saint of Fort Washington, on the relationship between two homeless men.

~Danny Glover

We have to be that wedge that drives the question and asks the hard questions

~Danny Glover

I try to find hope in struggle and resistance in small places as much as I can.

~Danny Glover

If we talk about literacy, we have to talk about how to enhance our children's mastery over the tools needed to live intelligent, creative, and involved lives.

~Danny Glover

I have the capacity to express what I feel needs to be expressed. And I try to do what I believe in.

~Danny Glover

Art is about the dynamics of the human experience.

~Danny Glover

What happened to Haiti is a threat that could happen anywhere in the Caribbean to these island nations, you know, because of global warming, because of climate change and all this.

~Danny Glover

It's important for people of color to link up with issues around globalization, food security, health, the environment.

~Danny Glover

Today, the media dictatorship is becoming a substitute to military dictatorship. The big economic groups are using the media and decide who can speak, who the good guy is and who the bad guy is.

~Danny Glover

When someone you know passes on, the only thing you can do is keep moving forward.

~Danny Glover

Freedom Summer, the massive voter education project in Mississippi, was 1964. I graduated from high school in 1965. So becoming active was almost a rite of passage.

~Danny Glover

I've been a Goodwill Ambassador for the UNICEF and the UNICEF family for more than twelve years

~Danny Glover

Im a child of the Civil Rights Movement.

~Danny Glover

I was able to do To Sleep with Anger, a very powerful film about African Americans, their spirituality, and the things that happened within a small community and a family.

~Danny Glover

I'm not so vain as to believe that my involvement changes anything whatsoever.

~Danny Glover

I've always been able to make choices that don't embarrass me.

~Danny Glover

Every day of my life I walk with the idea I am black no matter how successful I am.

~Danny Glover

One of the main purveyors of violence in this world has been this country America.

~Danny Glover

I never thought about being an actor. I was just going to play music and baseball. That's all I was going to do. To this day, that's what I do. I just added movies to it.

~Danny Glover

But rarely have I made choices that made me feel I was really compromising what I believe.

~Danny Glover

Popular literature and culture used to reflect people's aspirations, pain, and passion. All those particular things are no longer available to us.

~Danny Glover

The world is dealing with issues of immigration, deindustrialization, and poverty.

~Danny Glover

The death penalty is inhumane... whether that person is in a [jail] or it's bin Laden.

~Danny Glover

The black power movement was not a separation from the civil rights movement, but a continuation of this whole process of democratization.

~Danny Glover

We live in a climate of fear, and because of this whole ideology of consumption almost to the point of religion.

~Danny Glover

Democracy is about criticism.

~Danny Glover

I was involved with the anti-apartheid movement through my work as an artist and also through my political commitment.

~Danny Glover

There is a lack of leadership outside the Beltway, outside of politics.

~Danny Glover

We're trying to tell stories. We're a company that's concerned with global change and the effect of global cinema. We're not simply tied to the very limiting framework of U.S. film-making.

~Danny Glover

My Toussaint [Louverture] film is in limbo. We still hope after all this time that we can find another way to get this film done.

~Danny Glover

Lethal Weapon 2 used the platform to talk about the apartheid system. That was a very important moment for us.

~Danny Glover

The exceptionalism of a black U.S. President is not important to me. It's what he does - and who he has at the table.

~Danny Glover

My theatrical background was in the great work of the South African playwright Athol Fugard.

~Danny Glover

What he [Barack Obama] does to change the world - that's what's important.

~Danny Glover

The Black Power Mixtape is a documentary, first of all. It brings us closer to the voices we heard at that particular point in time.

~Danny Glover

Today's cinema is a proliferation of comedies, which are in some ways creating caricature images. They're one-dimensional.

~Danny Glover

I didn't elect [Barack] Obama because he's a black; I voted for Obama because he was the right person at the time.

~Danny Glover

Mel Gibson is my friend. I love Mel. He's not the person that I hear people are often trying to diminish. Whatever his challenges are in life, he still remains someone I'm very close to.

~Danny Glover

It's also important for those who promote those issues within the white community - the somewhat privileged community - to talk about issues affecting people of color.

~Danny Glover

When you have powerful unions, you have a working class that is politicized.

~Danny Glover

You have this response of angry young people, with a war going on in Vietnam, a poverty program that was insufficient, and police brutality.

~Danny Glover

It's a misconception to believe that the resistance ended with the civil rights movement.

~Danny Glover

President [Barack] Obama is a man who had certain advantages because of the civil rights movement.

~Danny Glover

In The Black Power Mixtape , you hear the voice of Angela Davis - not someone playing Angela Davis.

~Danny Glover

Mother Earth is in pain and ailing because of global warming.

~Danny Glover

Related Links:

- Black Quotes
- Rights Quotes
- People Quotes
- Important Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- War Quotes
- Issues Quotes
- Children Quotes
- White Quotes
- Ideas Quotes
- Movement Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Mother Quotes
- Powerful Quotes
- Cities Quotes
- San Francisco Quotes
- World Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Men Quotes