If you take a bunch of superstars and put them in a room where they don't have their assistants and entourage, it's funny to see what happens.

~Daryl Hall

I returned to upstate NY where I just laid in bed for days with a fever that just wouldn't go away. After more of this, I grew increasingly sure that this was not simply the flu!

~Daryl Hall

Traditionally, duos get accused of lots of things.

~Daryl Hall

Success and failure are equally surprising.

~Daryl Hall

Chronic Lyme causes arthritis, heart problems, stroke - even death.

~Daryl Hall

To me, there's two kinds of music these days. There's ephemeral music, and there's music that has lasting power and depth.

~Daryl Hall

Every artistic form has its golden age, and unfortunately I think the golden age for whatever I do probably ended about 1990.

~Daryl Hall

The Daryls House thing has made me into a live musician even more than I ever was, and even in the way I record.

~Daryl Hall

I love antique architecture, so if I have any indulgences, I have owned and renovated and reconstructed a lot of old houses.

~Daryl Hall

I was very inspired by my mother. She was a vocal teacher and sang in a band, and my first memories of her were going out with her on the local circuit.

~Daryl Hall

I never felt entitled to anything. I'm the hardest worker I know.

~Daryl Hall

I grew up in a very racially integrated place called Pottstown. It was an agricultural / industrial town which has since become a suburb of Philadelphia. I grew up basically in a black neighborhood.

~Daryl Hall

I have gone from one relationship to a marriage and stepchildren.

~Daryl Hall

I was a pioneer in MTV and I was there from the very beginning. So I saw how that developed and how loose it was and how much fun it was in its looseness. And I was influenced a lot by that.

~Daryl Hall

The biggest honor of my career was when I won R&B Artist of the Year back in the 1970s. I look at that as a major honor.

~Daryl Hall

If you work hard and you're good, you can build something for yourself.

~Daryl Hall

Nobody's going to sell 10 million records by not working hard.

~Daryl Hall

I definitely dislike pomposity and artifice. I hope that I'm not that. Once I write a song, it belongs to the world, and the way people perceive it, it's cool.

~Daryl Hall

Any song I don't feel good about, I shelve. Anything you ever hear me sing, it's because I want to.

~Daryl Hall

You must always be very cautious and be as vigilant as you can. You work diligently to provide a secure environment,.

~Daryl Hall

Yes, I travel in unusual circles. George Osborne and his wife Frances are my cousins.

~Daryl Hall

I think Philadelphia has been underrated over the years as a musical region.

~Daryl Hall

If Paul McCartney tells me that so-and-so song is his favorite song, what do I care? What do I care what anybody else says?

~Daryl Hall

Smokey Robinson is one of my heroes as a singer and songwriter, a major influence on my own music from the very start.

~Daryl Hall

What I do isn't black music, it's just my music.

~Daryl Hall

As a singer, I float around. I'm kind of scatty, bouncing around a lot. I try to adapt to what's going on around me in the song and the arrangement.

~Daryl Hall

I have to say I have never been comfortable with somebody else telling me what to do - in any way.

~Daryl Hall

Being at college, I think that's the time when you really start searching for things outside yourself.

~Daryl Hall

As I got older, my voice got better.

~Daryl Hall

Americans think that if you're popular, there must be something wrong with you.

~Daryl Hall

Everybody who I ever cared about has told me that they like my music: Bob Dylan, Paul McCartney, Al Green, The Spinners, Smokey Robinson. Everybody that matters.

~Daryl Hall

When you have that first flash of what you think is going to be a great idea-from the mouth, from the hands-that's an amazing feeling. I don't think anything's quite as good as that.

~Daryl Hall

Most artists try to avoid cliches, but it's pretty hard to avoid them if you yourself end up being one.

~Daryl Hall

I have an English family and I've lived in England for years.
