Playground of Dreams supports kids in discovering and achieving their own magnificence, that unique quality that only they have, fostering it, watering it, and watching it sprout!

~Dash Mihok

I'm a morning "spinner." That's usually when my brain is thinking too much and I don't necessarily see things positively. So I sit myself down and remember that I'm making it up.

~Dash Mihok

I've have a number of violent tics. With Tourette syndrome, there's not just compulsive actions, but compulsive thoughts as well. That used to scare my mother a lot.

~Dash Mihok

The greatest acting really is spoken without words, or at least I like to think that.

~Dash Mihok

I come alive when there is a chance to learn or do something different.

~Dash Mihok

I had this tic where I touch my mouth to my knee, and I'm always screwing up my back. I've had two shoulder surgeries. My doctor just smiles and laughs at me.

~Dash Mihok

My biggest life lesson is that the past is the past. I do my best not to bring history into my present. It ain't ever easy, but it usually creates more opportunity for joyful experiences.

~Dash Mihok

Here's the thing: I had never been to Boston, my whole life. Probably because I'm a Yankee fan.

~Dash Mihok

In the years when teenagers really need to be connected to somebody, they aren't; especially in small towns where kids are bored and look for something to get them going.

~Dash Mihok

There's moments when you have to make a split-second decision that will form you for the rest of your life.
