Our love for God and our appreciation of His love and forgiveness will be in proportion to the recognition of our sin and unworthiness.

~Dave Hunt

The more clearly we see the infinite chasm between God's glory and our sinful falling short thereof, the greater will be our appreciation of His grace and love in bridging that gulf to redeem us.

~Dave Hunt

That the Father and Son would love sinners that much is beyond our comprehension--but it ought to awaken a response of love and gratitude within our hearts that will change our lives forever!

~Dave Hunt

In Christ alone, and His payment of the penalty for our sins upon the Cross, we find reconciliation to God and ultimate meaning and purpose.

~Dave Hunt

There is no excuse for falling into delusion, which is so contrary to the Word of God.

~Dave Hunt

Fervent seeking after God with the whole heart, without which no one can know Him, has always been the mark of His true followers.

~Dave Hunt

To attempt to pay for salvation with church membership, prayers, or good deeds is an insult to Christ, who paid the full price--and is a rejection of the gift of God's grace.

~Dave Hunt

One might just as well trust in the "good luck" of a rabbit's foot as to hope for spiritual benefit from a Catholic scapular, medal, crucifix, or relic of an alleged "saint."

~Dave Hunt

The key to our lives as Christians today is how clearly we see by faith the resurrected Christ.

~Dave Hunt

Atheism leads to numerous absurdities promoted by otherwise intelligent people.

~Dave Hunt

The sad truth is that among today's evangelicals it is not loving and esteeming God but self-love and self-esteem that are presented as the pressing need!

~Dave Hunt

The revelation of Christ, for which our souls thirst, thrills us increasingly as we more clearly understand who He is in all His fullness and what He accomplished to reconcile us to Himself.

~Dave Hunt

Darwinism's atheism prevents science from knowing why things are as they are. Without God there is no answer to the why for anything.

~Dave Hunt

Atheism is not simply beyond reason, it is contrary to reason.
