Somewhere in the future I am remembering today.

~David Berman

When there's trouble I don't like running, but I'm afraid I got more in common with who I was, than who I am becoming

~David Berman

Romance is the douche of the bourgeoisie.

~David Berman

All the characters on the album are inside me, though none are me. They are sides of me or who I was.

~David Berman

You can't change the feeling but you can change your feelings about the feeling in a second or two

~David Berman

There is a person whose acquaintance and conversation I do earnestly recommend unto you as thing of the greatest advantage: you will be surprised when I tell you it is yourself.

~David Berman

I am about to learn what it's like to live here.

~David Berman

...and my signature is drawn in magic marker on the lower right hand corner of the window so when something passes in the dark it's captured for a moment inside my work.

~David Berman

It takes a society to raise a generation.
