It's been the work that has carried me and I never wanted to rest on my laurels or go back and do what I done before.

~David Cassidy

It's not about the fame and the money because if you do good work all that stuff comes

~David Cassidy

My life has flourished in so many ways both personally and professionally that I can't ask for a better life.

~David Cassidy

I was silver-white by the time I was 35, but having grey hair makes me look washed out. My wife and son have both said that grey hair doesn't suit me because I have a boyish face.

~David Cassidy

I'm never going to retire and say, 'This is it. This is my last show.' I will not go on tour - I promised my wife and son no more than two weeks on the road.

~David Cassidy

I'm not saying that I won't tour again, but the chances are slim because my priorities are different now.

~David Cassidy

As a father, I do everything my dad didn't do. My son Beau's birth changed my life.

~David Cassidy

I'm a really good team player. That's what it takes to work in the theater. That's what it takes to work in a band with musicians and writers.

~David Cassidy

I had a lot of very religious influences - Christian religious.

~David Cassidy

Thoroughbred racing is really my true passion. I'm living my dream.

~David Cassidy

I've always had a special relationship with the U.K. fans, because even when I wasn't working they were very supportive.

~David Cassidy

I bought my first horse when I was 15. I always loved racing and I started studying about breeding and I've been doing it now for 30 years, so I have some credibility.

~David Cassidy

I've been able to go on and have a successful career on Broadway and certainly the last five years in Las Vegas have been amazing.

~David Cassidy

I don't play nostalgia acts. I don't play nostalgia shows.

~David Cassidy

I played in garage bands and rock and roll bands when I was in junior high and high school and saw some of the great talents of all time in the local area where I lived.

~David Cassidy

My music was never considered cool, but I've always felt that connection with the audience.

~David Cassidy

I've always had a love for horses since I was really young. When I was 5 years old, the only thing that made me happy was when they'd take me out and give me pony rides.

~David Cassidy

I look fine. I've had no surgery apart from an operation I had decades ago to remove the fat under my eyes. My mum looked 30 when she was 60, so I guess I owe it all to genes and hair dye.

~David Cassidy

I have an audience that goes from kids to seventy year olds.

~David Cassidy

I've had a great metamorphosis in my life. I struggled for a number of years because I was identified with that image of the Seventies.

~David Cassidy

When you have had the kind of fame I had, I was always hounded by the media and I lived a very isolated life. Now it's even more difficult. The world has changed dramatically.

~David Cassidy

My mother gave up a good part of her career to look after me.

~David Cassidy

I've had three biographies made about my life so people know an awful lot about me.

~David Cassidy

My mother, Evelyn, was an actress and singer, and my father, Jack, was an actor. My earliest recollection of my father is being taken to see him in a matinee.

~David Cassidy

In a very short period of time, actors can become kind of relevant and hot.

~David Cassidy

If you put the talent of all my brothers together, they wouldn't add up to the talent that was in my father.

~David Cassidy

Everything in my life was about performance when I was doing 'The Partridge Family.'

~David Cassidy

All I had done for five years was work 18 hours a day all over the world. I needed to step back and distance myself from it.
