If you can't do anything about it, laugh like hell.

~David Cook

My brothers are my backbone. My parents are my oxygen. I can't live without them.

~David Cook

I spent a majority of my life in Kansas City, so I am a Chiefs and Royals guy. I used to work for the Royals for like five years in the suites department and in the stadium club restaurant.

~David Cook

Enjoy the experience, don't just experience the experience

~David Cook

I think the future is whatever I'm willing to make it.

~David Cook

Alcoholism is a well documented pathological reaction to unresolved grief.

~David Cook

If you wanna know the truth, you make or break my day. If you wanna know the truth, I wouldn't have it any other way.

~David Cook

It's amazing what a haircut and forgetting to shave will do.

~David Cook

I will never shy away from embarrassing myself for a good cause

~David Cook

I'd always wanted to grow my hair out. And now looking back on those photos I understand why I probably shouldn't have.

~David Cook

Life has a strange way of working itself out

~David Cook

I think every good song tells a story, as ambiguous and vague as it may be. And if you know what a song is talking about, it can only help your performance.

~David Cook

I have to be involved. Whether it's me writing by myself or with other people, I definitely want to have my hand in the creative process. That's part of why I got into music in the first place.

~David Cook

I live for Tuesdays, and die by Wednesdays.

~David Cook

Some of the best rock shows I ever saw were those appealing to all your senses.

~David Cook

I'm admittedly a record guy. Singles and I are a different beast. I'm definitely an overall picture thinker.

~David Cook

There's definitely a visual aspect and an emotional aspect to a song. And that harks back, for me, to theater.

~David Cook

I'm competitive to a fault, so of course every week I'm just like, "I want to win, I want to do great."

~David Cook

The further you go on the show, the larger the budget gets. But in the beginning they were just like, "Here's a hundred bucks in L.A. Good luck."

~David Cook

I got to play with ZZ Top and introduce Bryan Adams and George Michael. And to have it all topped off by me winning 'American Idol?!' It's pretty absurd.

~David Cook

I absolutely think the Seattle grunge sound was instrumental to my music education.

~David Cook

It's amazing what a spray-on tan will do.
