You know, all my songs are relatives, brothers, sisters, cousins.

~David Coverdale

What anybody else thinks about you is really of no consequence. It's what you think of yourself.

~David Coverdale

I think we have two very important missions in life. One is to find out who we really are and the other one is to taste as much of life and experience as much of life as we can.

~David Coverdale

The audience will make you feel like a demigod. But when you leave the stage, get back to being human.

~David Coverdale

I don't avoid confrontation, people should know that.

~David Coverdale

In the last couple of years I've been facing down a lot of the demons of the past and trying to find out, who I am, It's something I think I'll be doing for the rest of my life.

~David Coverdale

I've always loved music, very simply, as a vehicle to express myself and that hasn't changed.

~David Coverdale

I probably listen to Burn more than any of them, because it was so new me, so novel. To see my name on an actual record was such an incredible feeling.

~David Coverdale

My voice is an instrument.

~David Coverdale

Someone once asked me, 'How does Jimmy Page strike you?' I replied, 'With both hands, of course...'

~David Coverdale

I've never been uncomfortable putting my heart on display, my feelings on display, certainly with an audience.

~David Coverdale

All my vocals were recorded at home, which was great for me. You can actually have a studio in a computer program called ProTools. I did half the record with ProTools.

~David Coverdale

Most of the albums that have taken long have been related to illness and fatigue or producer problems.

~David Coverdale

I saw what Purple meant to people and I still hear it now when I'm in Europe. I'm always shocked that I'm still asked about Purple because it was such a long time ago.

~David Coverdale

Hard rock may have faded from the media for a time, but I've always been able to make a living, if not in America, then in the rest of the world.

~David Coverdale

Artistic development is a thing of the past, sadly.

~David Coverdale

I've always thought live albums were cop-outs.

~David Coverdale

Amateurs in professional situations make me very impatient.

~David Coverdale

Not necessarily, a lot of my songs are firmly tongue in cheek.

~David Coverdale

I take care of my voice; I'm working out the way I would do my body, so that stays in shape.

~David Coverdale

The only one I really like is a song called Saccharine.

~David Coverdale

People think that I don't like women.

~David Coverdale

The critics love to get out their knives and dine on Coverdale. But the worse the criticism gets, the more successful I become.

~David Coverdale

If I was a politician right now I would change just about everything.

~David Coverdale

I stand by every decision I've made throughout my career and my life, good or bad, up or down.

~David Coverdale

I'm the last person to ask 'what do you remember' from a particular time period... I like to learn from the past... not 'live' in it.

~David Coverdale

With Whitesnake it would have been inappropriate for me to have played Deep Purple songs, although I did at the beginning because I didn't have enough Whitesnake songs.
