Give yourself the gift of time in coming to answers for your life...It takes time, and a lot of introspection and soul-searching, to get clear about what you really want to manifest in your life.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Persecutors fear loss of control. Rescuers fear loss of purpose. Rescuers need Victims-someone to protect or fix-to bolster their self-esteem.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

A Rescuer isn't always a person. Addictions to alcohol or drugs, sexual addiction, workaholism-all the ways we numb out-can rescue the Victim from feeling his or her own feelings.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Some of the steps you take may end up being detours or out-and-out mistakes. By staying focused on your vision, though, you'll find even those steps useful in the creating process.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Persecutors, like Victims, act out of fear. They may seem fearless, but actually Persecutors are almost always former Victims.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Persecutors are almost always former Victims.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Frozen in fear, you avoid responsibility because you think your experience is beyond your control. This stance keeps you from making decisions, solving problems, or going after what you want in life.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

The focus in the Creator Orientation is on a Vision or an Outcome. You orient your thoughts and actions toward creating what you most deeply want to see or experience in life.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Living from the Creator Orientation is actually more challenging. In the Victim Orientation, I didn't have to exercise conscious choice; I just reacted to my circumstances.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

All victims have experienced a loss-a thwarted desire or aspiration-even if they're not aware of it.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

Whatever I hold in my mind tends to manifest itself in my life. What we believe and assume creates most of our reality and our experience.

~David Emerald Womeldorff

TED-The Empowerment Dynamic-counteracts the poison of DDT, the Dreaded Dram Triangle. TED is the antidote for DDT.
