The problem with the gene pool is that there's no lifeguard.

~David Gerrold

I have memories - but only a fool stores his past in the future.

~David Gerrold

Of course life is bizarre, the more bizarre it gets, the more interesting it is. The only way to approach it is to make yourself some popcorn and enjoy the show.

~David Gerrold

Life is hard. Then you die. Then they throw dirt in your face. Then the worms eat you. Be grateful it happens in that order.

~David Gerrold

I'm all in favor of keeping dangerous weapons out of the hands of fools. Let's start with typewriters.

~David Gerrold

Understanding the laws of nature does not mean that we are immune to their operations.

~David Gerrold

The jingling of a fat purse always commands the world.

~David Gerrold

True genius can be identified by the fact that its expression changes the world into something it has never been before.

~David Gerrold

Adolescence is that time in your life when you discover your ability to be depressed.

~David Gerrold

You will find it easiest to ride the avalanche in the direction it already travels.

~David Gerrold

The human race never solves any of its problems, it only outlives them.

~David Gerrold

Study what you love, and you'll never have to work a day in your life. It'll be one great adventure.

~David Gerrold

Contentment is the continuing act of accepting the process of your own life.

~David Gerrold

If you're passing the buck, don't ask for change.

~David Gerrold

The secret of the universe is this: The universe doesn't care. That part of the job is yours.

~David Gerrold

Doesn't anybody ever want to talk about anything else besides 'Star Trek?' There were 79 episodes of the series; there were 55 different writers. I was only one of them.

~David Gerrold

Life is full of little surprises. Time travel is full of big ones.

~David Gerrold

Tomorrow is going to be different than yesterday, it's going to be a lot different.

~David Gerrold

Incompetency fed on itself.

~David Gerrold

Death comes black and hard, rushing down on me from the future, with no possible chance of escape.

~David Gerrold

You can tell a lot about a civilization by the quality of the people found in its jails.

~David Gerrold

Most people say they want justice, but they don't really want justice. They want revenge. They want to see the pain spread around equally.

~David Gerrold

I'm frustrated with Hollywood and television and the movies because they see science fiction as an excuse for eye candy, for lots of great special effects.

~David Gerrold

I've always felt that anyone who wants to talk about my private life is only demonstrating the paucity of his/her imagination when there are so many more important and exciting things to discuss.

~David Gerrold

Only people who haven't lived through a war advocate it so eagerly.

~David Gerrold

You cannot avoid mortality. But you can choose your way of meeting it. And that is the most that any man can hope for.

~David Gerrold

Life has a peculiar habit -- once established, it stays. Sometimes it even thrives.

~David Gerrold

A work of art is an act of love. Critics are crab lice.

~David Gerrold

I think I exist, therefore I exist. I think.

~David Gerrold

The fifties are a peaceful time, a quiet sleeping time between two noisy bursts of years, a blue and white time filled with sweet yellow days, music and bright smelling memories.

~David Gerrold

It's almost always dangerous to be right too soon.
